

Parish Prayer Diary

Day 1 Our Bishops, archdeacons, area dean and the mission of our diocese

Day 2 The churchwardens and Parochial Church Council

Day 3 The treasurer, secretary and other officers of the church

Day 4 The music ministry of the church: our organist and choir

Day 5 An increase of vocations to lay and ordained ministries from our parish

Day 6 Those preparing for marriage in our parish

Day 7 The unemployed and impoverished members of our communities

Day 8 The elderly and housebound who receive communion at home

Day 9 The sides people and all who provide a ministry of welcome

Day 10 All who enquire about the Christian faith, that they will find a welcome in our church family

Day 11 Our church schools: head teachers, governors, staff and pupils

Day 12 Our church members in hospital

Day 13 Other primary schools and high schools which serve our community

Day 14 Clergy, sacristan, cleaners, florists, readers, intercessors, servers and all who prepare and lead worship

Day 15 People of all faiths and of no faith, for good relations in the wider community

Day 16 All who work in our parish: shops, banks and other places of employment

Day 17 The Authorised Lay Ministers in our parish

Day 18 The prayer and worship groups, that we may grow in faith and closer to God

Day 19 Our ecumenical neighbours, for unity of faith and witness to Christ

Day 20 Our Sunday school, children's ministries

Day 21 For effective stewardship of our money, time and talents for the development and growth of the parish

Day 22 All who have been bereaved during the past month

Day 23 Local councillors and MP, for good relations between church, business and community leaders

Day 24 Former clergy, churchwardens and congregation: for all we inherit today

Day 25 Those preparing for Baptism and Confirmation in our parish

Day 26 Those struggling with their faith

Day 27 The Fellowship of St Bartholomew's, St Georges, St James, St Johns, St Thomas's

Day 28 Those in our hearts and minds

Day 29 Local hospital all who work there and are treated there

Day 30 The charities supported by our church, The Children's Society, Christian Aid

Day 31 Pray for your own commitment to faith and your discipleship as a follower of Jesus Christ

